

Surveys Overview

Last Modified on 24/01/2022 10:01 am AEDT

Surveys are a tool for collecting and information from individuals.

The survey process can be split into two distinct phases.

- Designing the survey - build a library of questions and survey layouts
- Collecting the survey results - analyse the results of the survey

← BACK EDIT

Application survey

Name: Application survey

Description: Survey provided to all university applications.

Show help text:

Application: Foster University

Survey Layout Outcomes Campaigns Workflow

+ SECTION + QUESTION - + BREAK

SECTION 1 X

1. Between 1 and 10 rate your application experience	<input type="text"/>
2. How likely are you to morris dance?	[Select] <input type="text"/>
3. In your own words describe your first experience with 2/3 Gripple adjustable cresent cams.	<input type="text"/>

Survey form for building survey layouts