Survey Security

Giving users permission to create surveys

Users other than administrators may want to create their own surveys, such as a Marketing Campaign Manager. A Survey Creator role is used to grant end users permission. In the Security section of Administration, add the Survey Creator role to the nominated User Account.